

Competition opening announcement for a studentship in the research project
Multimodal Stancetaking: Expressive Movement and Affective Stance:
Political Debates in the German Bundestag and the Polish Sejm

Name of the unit: Faculty of Modern Languages and Literatures, Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań

Position name: student – assistant scholarship

Requirements:

The team of the MuMo Stance project (<http://mmstance.home.amu.edu.pl>), dedicated to the analysis of expressive statements of German and Polish parliamentarians, is looking for two people interested in participating in the project as scholarship holders. Candidates should be students of master's studies (holding a bachelor's degree or studying in the 4th or 5th year of uniform master's studies) or doctoral students, have basic linguistic competences, including phonetics, and be interested in multimodal communication research and working with linguistic corpora. We are looking for people who use linguistic computer software or are motivated to quickly learn how to use it (ELAN, AnnotationPro, Praat, etc.). Teamwork and communication skills are important. Due to working in an international team, knowledge of English is necessary. Knowledge of German will also be an advantage.

Description of tasks:

The tasks of the hired person will include correction of automatic segmentation and transcription of the corpus, annotation of gestures, documentation of project results, and other supporting works.

Conditions of employment:

The period of participation in the project will start from July 1, 2024 to December 31, 2024. During this period, the scholarship holder must meet the formal requirements imposed by the NCN. The planned amount of the scholarship is PLN 2,000.

Required documents:

Offers containing (1) CV with information about your education and studies (no more than 1 page) and (2) concise cover letter (no more than ½ page) please send to the Principal Investigator (maciej.karpinski@amu.edu.pl) with the subject "NCN Beethoven - recruitment" by June 17, 2024. The documents must be accompanied by a signed declaration of consent to the processing of personal data in the recruitment process for the project, included below.
