

HR EXCELLENCE IN RESEARCH

Data: 13. 09. 2021 r.

INFORMATION ON THE RESULTS OF THE COMPETITION

COMPETITION REFERENCE NUMBER	konkurs_22_WS_adiunkt_1_2021
DEPARTMENT	Department of Sociology
POSITION	Assistant Profesor (adjunct)

As a result of the competition for the above-mentioned post, the jury selected Dr Natasza Doiczman-Łoboda to be employed.

The candidate fulfilled the requirements of the competition.

Justification:

After reviewing the documentation of achievements and interviewing the candidate, the Commission concluded that Dr Natasza Doiczman-Łoboda meets all the formal and substantive criteria of the competition. Her advantage in terms of scientific degrees is the fact that she has been educated in two disciplines - obtaining the degree of Master after graduating from sociological studies and the degree of Master after graduating from psychological studies, as well as obtaining the degree of Doctor of social sciences, discipline sociological sciences. The candidate has an extensive record of research, scientific activity and academic teaching. She also has an extensive publication and grant-awarding experience. Her asset is also documented long-term contacts and cooperation with social institutions, mainly in the required aspect of experience in cooperation with institutions and organisations operating in social work, social policy, social support, social and psychological assistance. An important asset is her precise research plans, including grants and publications (also concrete plans for foreign publications), which will be very beneficial for the candidate's future, her scientific development, but also important for the Department of Sociology.

Chairperson of the Competition Committee

prof. UAM dr hab. Aldona Źurek