Date: 9.07.2024

INFORMATION ON THE RESULT OF THE COMPETITION

COMPETITION REFERENCE NUMBER	17_WNGiG_2024
FACULTY	Faculty of Geographical and Geological Sciences
POST	Adjunct

As a result of the proceedings in the competition conducted for the above mentioned post, following a secret ballot vote, the competition committee has chosen Mr. Adam Perz.

Justification (formulated by the competition committee):

The competition committee analyzed the documents submitted by the Candidate in the competition procedure. They met formal and substantive requirements. The Candidate met all the criteria adopted in the competition conditions. The Candidate was highly rated by the Committee. He is a scientifically active person, developing his own research program, the results of which have been published in highly-rated scientific journals. Extensive experience in implementing water management projects was also considered important. The hitherto professional work also indicates the Candidate's organizational skills and independence in taking on challenges. During the conversation, the Candidate formulated his statements logically and in correct Polish, and their content fully satisfied the members. The Committee recognizes that the Candidate will be a valuable research and teaching employee with real prospects for scientific advancement. The Committee recommends employment as an adjunct.

The remaining candidates did not meet the basic requirements of the competition.
